Goldsboro, North Carolina, is what one might term typically "Home Town, U.S.A." This title carries with it a feeling that life in our city is an easy-going affair, slow to progress, and content to remain steeped in the traditions of years past. If this is sometimes the case, it is good; change for the sake of change alone rarely benefits mankind.

Yet there has been an awakening in our school during these last brief years, a new consciousness formed by the students themselves.

We who are seniors have seen take place a new awareness on the part of many within our school, sometimes almost imperceptibly, sometimes with an air approaching revolution.

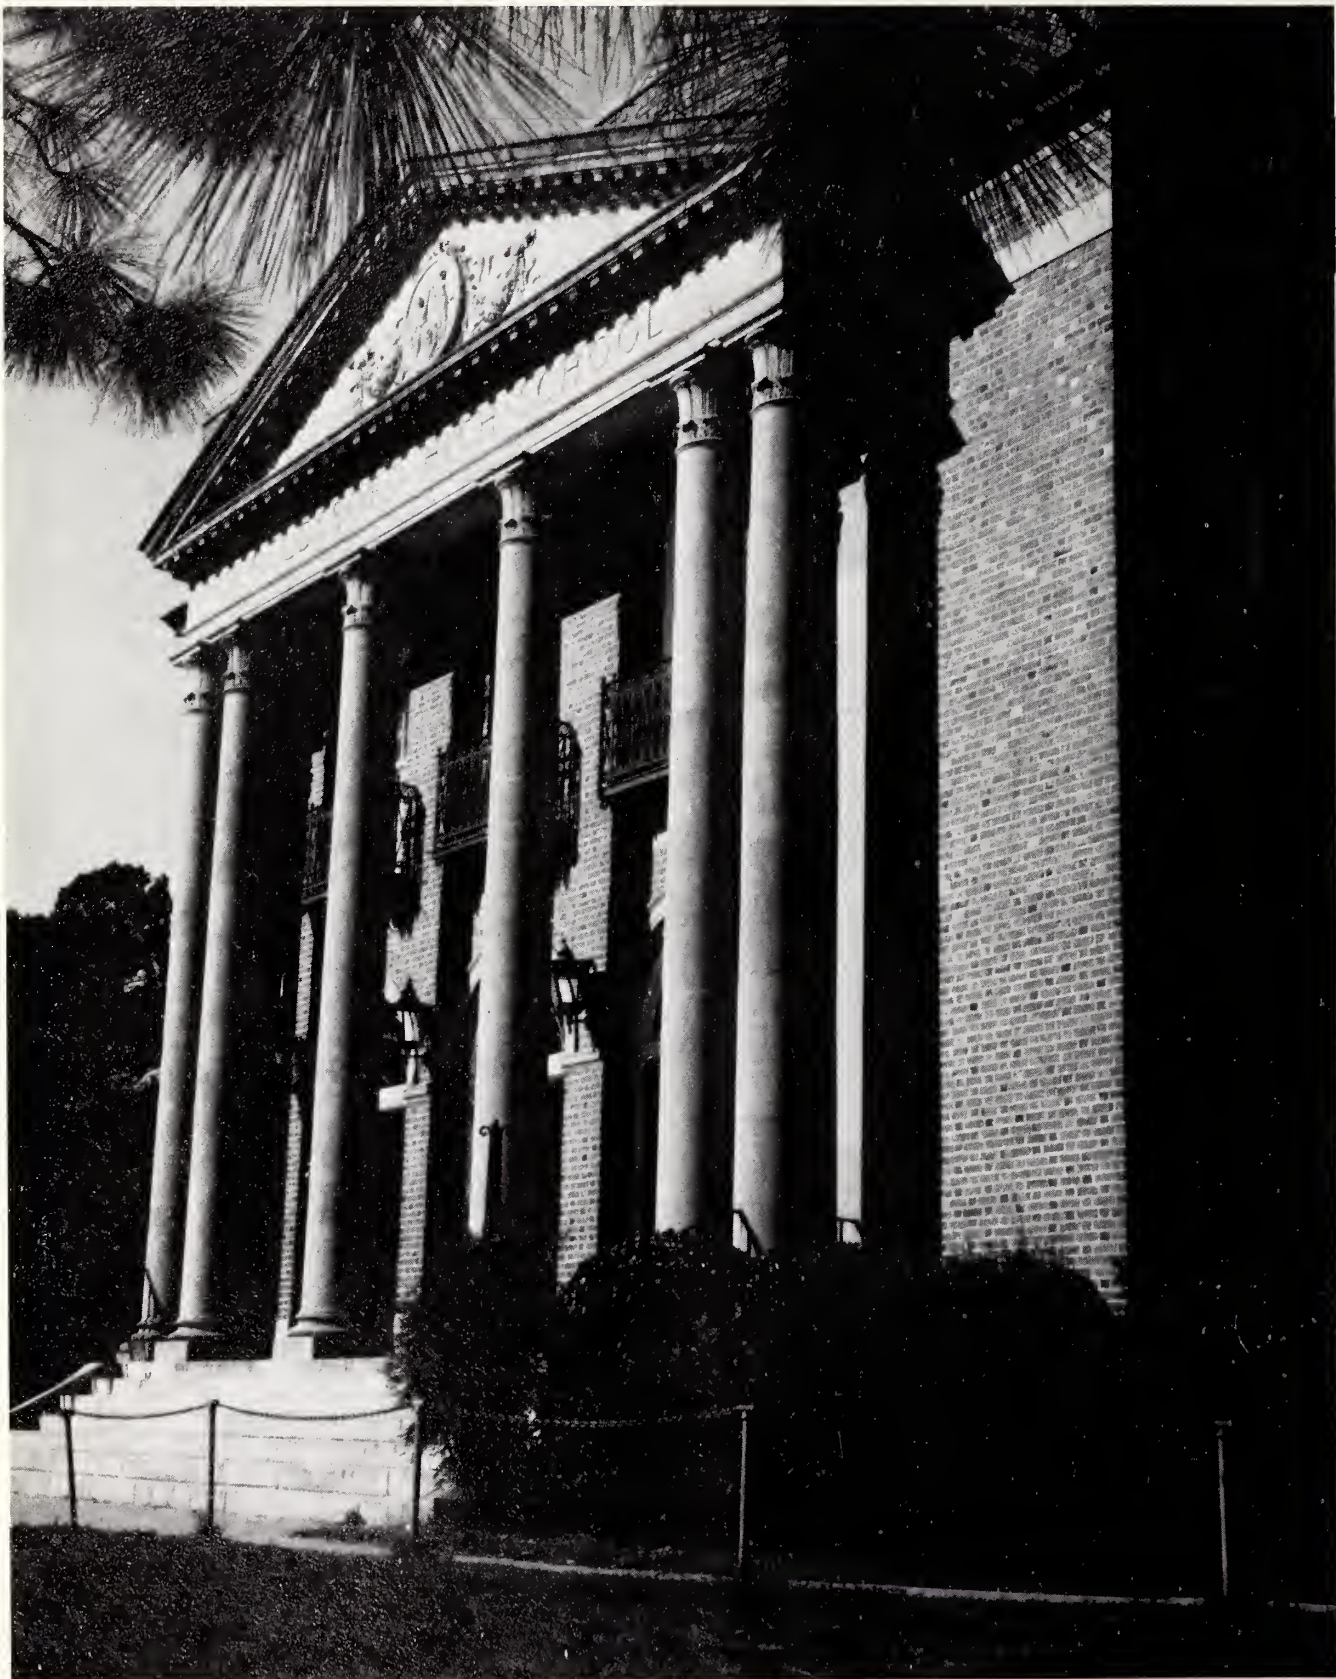

IN RECOGNITION OF THIS NEW AWAKENING
TO THE BUILDING OF GREATER

WE DEDICATE THE 1963-1964 GOHISCA
BRIDGES OF UNDERSTANDING.

Goldsboro Senior High School

We attending this school have learned that it sometimes takes years for people to realize that their needs have changed, and so must their actions. Yet we have also come to know this: A tradition is as modern as the need it fulfills.

If we can now strike a balance between these concepts, we may, by our very lives, give to others the wisdom hidden within ourselves.

Today is not yesterday. — We ourselves change. — How then can our works and thoughts, if they are always to be the fittest, continue the same?

Change, indeed, is painful, yet ever needful; and if memory have its force and worth, so also has hope.

— Carlyle

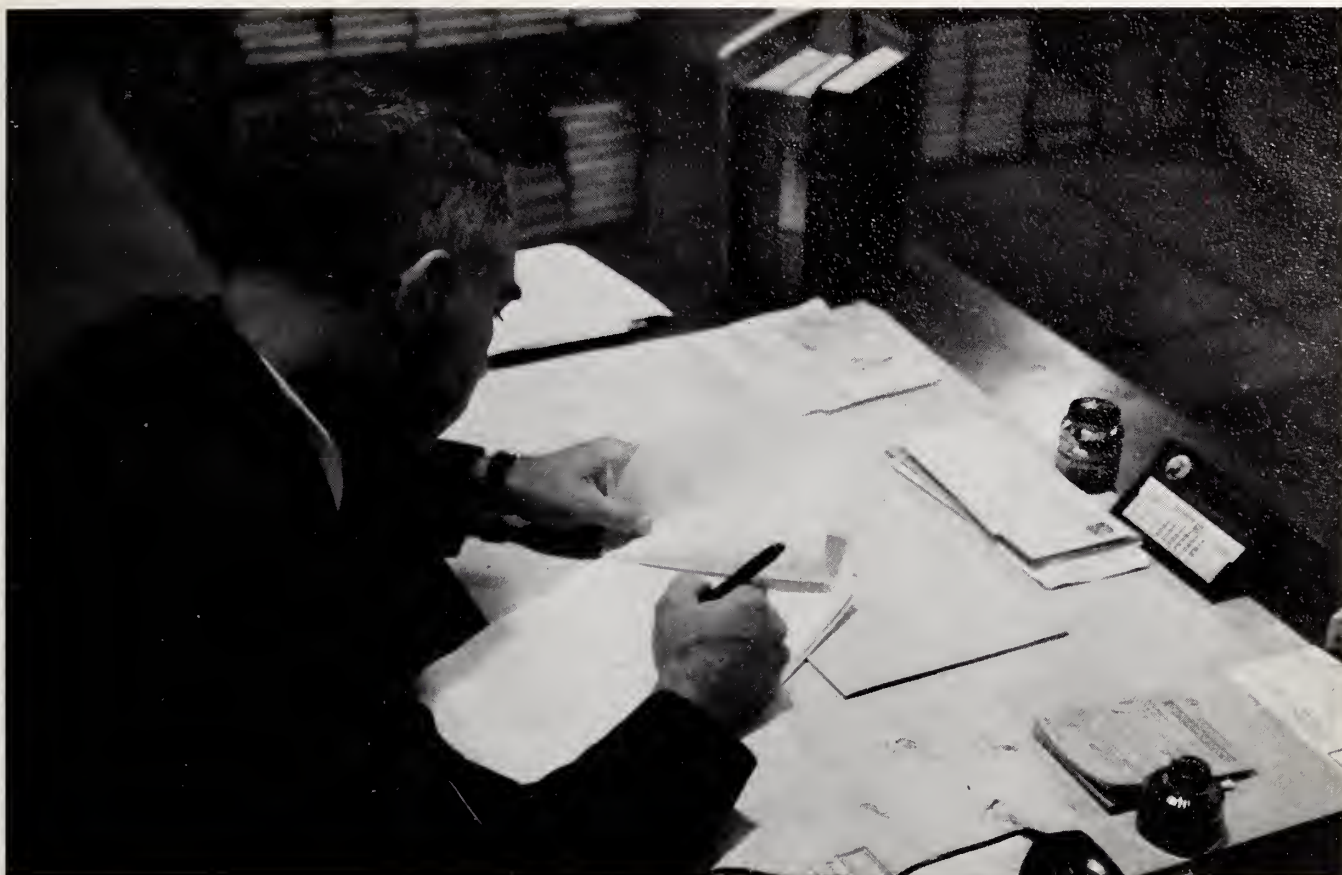

Besides having the official title of Assistant Principal, Mr. Plonk has many other responsibilities. He has shown his ability to get along with students to be an important aspect of his life.

Mr. Plonk has never hesitated to take on the jobs where no recognition was given. One may see him at any time driving a school bus, counselling a distraught student, or simply helping others in some way.

For his willingness to serve,
the 1964 Gohisca honors . . .

Mr. Hal Plonk

Mr. Hal Plonk

It is rare to find such a congenial bus driver as Mr. Plonk, who helps with the driving in place of an occasionally absent regular.

During Summer Months . . .

Some of us preferred to use our leisure time constructively. Since there are many progress-minded businesses in Goldsboro, a summer job for an inexperienced but willing teenager was not hard to find.

Others were content to while away the time in the sun, taking part in the usual pastimes that go hand in hand with hot weather.

Goldsboro teens took visitors such as Art Whitten to the Teen Club, to the Rec Room, to Skinney's, to an afternoon picnic at the Cliffs . . .

. . . while frequently the only distinguishing characteristic between teenagers and children in the lower grades was size.

Before the opening days of school, students could be seen working feverishly to finish bulletin boards such as this one in Mrs. Hines' English 226 on notable American authors.

J.V. cheerleaders found that although our flagpole may have fallen to an untimely death, it still had its purposes.

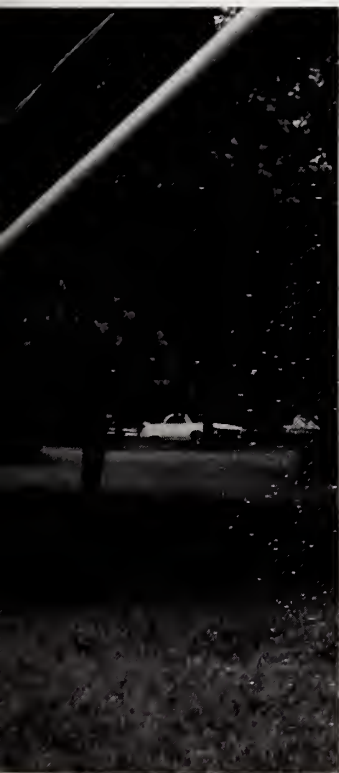

In Mr. Rogers' room lab equipment waited for the student enterprising enough to use it on his own time.

Suddenly September Was Here Again . . .

Laura found her schedule most interesting, with Miss Grant for study hall, composition, and English.

Shall we be content with old bridges,
Or shall we build our own?

Administration

"A man must require just and reasonable things if he would see the scales of obedience trimmed properly."

Basil

Goldsboro Board of Education

Our City Board of Education is a very important organization in the Goldsboro City School Administration. The board is composed of ten members who meet once a month with Dr. Shope to discuss and settle the problems of the high school and grade school students.

Mr. William Dees, who is a prominent lawyer in Goldsboro, is chairman of the board this year. His achievements in the field of education are recognized throughout the state.

DR. N. H. SHOPE
Superintendent

In helping to improve our school systems, Dr. Shope has done everything possible striving to achieve the standards of quality education.

Dr. Shope is a graduate of Otterbein College, and he received his Master's Degree and Doctor's Degree from the University of North Carolina.

City Schools Administration

MR. EARL DAVENPORT
Administrative Assistant

Serving as Administrative Assistant is Mr. Earl Davenport. He helps Dr. Shope and also works with the business administration. Mr. Davenport was a teacher at Goldsboro Junior High School before assuming his present position.

MR. HAL K. PLONK

Mr. Plonk is serving as a guidance counselor and assistant principal for Goldsboro High School. Everyone certainly does appreciate the hard work he is doing.

MRS. B. K. BALKCUM

Mrs. Balkcum is working as a full time guidance counselor this year. She is always ready and willing to help any student.

MRS. J. W. BOYETTE

This is Mrs. Boyette's second year managing the high school cafeteria. Her pleasant smile is always welcome to the many hungry students.

MRS. NADINE HOWELL

Mrs. Howell is Mr. Twiford's secretary; she also manages the office. In doing this she plays an active part in helping our school.

Mr. Twiford Leads the Goldsboro Senior High Administration

Mr. C. W. Twiford has been principal of Goldsboro High School for 22 years. During this time he has proved to be invaluable to both students and faculty in providing both efficient and industrious leadership. Seniors especially appreciate the help offered by Mr. Twiford when college applications and transcripts must be attended to. To adequately understand Mr. Twiford's importance to our school, one must be aware of the countless hours he spends co-ordinating school affairs.

... Associate Teachers Add New Ideas And Activities.

Something new has been added to the faculty this year. The associate teachers and their new, exciting methods of teaching have added enthusiasm to our school. Each has taken an interest in the students and has made worthwhile contributions to organizations and projects of the school.

These student teachers, who are advised by Mrs. Hines, are part of a fifth year program at U. N. C. They are working toward their Masters of Arts degree in education which they will receive in August. Though they only teach three periods each day, during extra time they work at various jobs in the school.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club, guided by capable officers and a willing advisor, Mrs. Uzzell, set the stage for an interesting study of Spain this year. Several students who have visited Spain informed members about old Spanish culture and customs, and Spain as a modern and progressive nation. Many students enjoy delving into the Spanish world.

Mrs. Uzzell is constantly striving to acquaint students with the more interesting sides of Spanish.

Pres. Carol Patrick
Vice Pres. Thurston Cobb
Sec.-Treas. Donna Sutton

In a few short years the Goldsboro High School Spanish Club has built itself into an organization that is an integral part of the students' lives. It is the club's wish that it will continue to grow in the future as it has in the past.

Future Homemakers Of America

The Future Homemakers of America, composed of the students in Mrs. Self's home economics classes, has strived for a better understanding of family relationships and child development. Emphasis has also been placed on careers related to Home Economics.

The big event of the year is the fashion show that the dressmakers present to the student body in the spring. F.H.A. members attend conventions on county, district and state levels.

Future Teachers Of America

Service to the school, aiding members in getting teaching scholarships, and broadening the knowledge of teaching as a career are the major projects of the Future Teachers of America. Teachers are often asked to speak at club meetings to inform and counsel students concerning various aspects of teaching. This spring the F.T.A. plans to hold a teacher appreciation banquet to honor the faculty of G.H.S.

Debating Club

The Debating Club, in its first year, is not only one of the more educational clubs in the school, but also one of the most enjoyable. With the aid of its new advisor, Mr. Shipp, the members have learned a great deal about public speaking and have attended workshops on debating. This club has accomplished much in its first year.

The Math Club was established for students who have a flare for math. Members of the club become familiar with aspects of math that they do not learn in the classroom.

Pep Club

The Pep Club, now in its second year, was most successful this year. The members of this club strive to create spirit for athletics among the students. The victory bell was purchased this year to be rung after an athletic victory. The Pep Club experimented with a card section at football games and decorated the gym for basketball games. It also sponsored several pep rallies and displayed banners in the halls before major athletic events.

Science Club

The Science Club has had a very successful year with more members than ever before. Every club meeting had a scientific program of either experiments or films. Several field trips, such as visits to a chemical plant, were also enjoyed by club members, and plans were made for a Science Fair. The Science Club is one of the more active clubs in our school.

Biology Club

The Biology Club, divided into junior and senior divisions, has proven to be one of the most interesting and enjoyable organizations of the school. The guided tour of Cherry Hospital and Obery School was one of the more educational projects sponsored by the club. Wishing to improve the appearance of G.H.S., the club purchased several trees for our campus. Speakers were also invited to speak on various phases of biology to round out a successful year.

Industrial Co-operative Training Club

The purpose of the I.C.T. Club is to provide vocational trade and industrial training opportunities for the youth of the community. It also is to increase the students' civic and vocational intelligence so that they will be better prepared to enter the occupation of their choice and to advance in this occupation. Mr. McRoy, their advisor, guides these boys in preparing for their future work.

Frank Van Hoy is at work making furniture.

Heinz Guttenger works behind the scenes at the meat department at Piggly Wiggly.

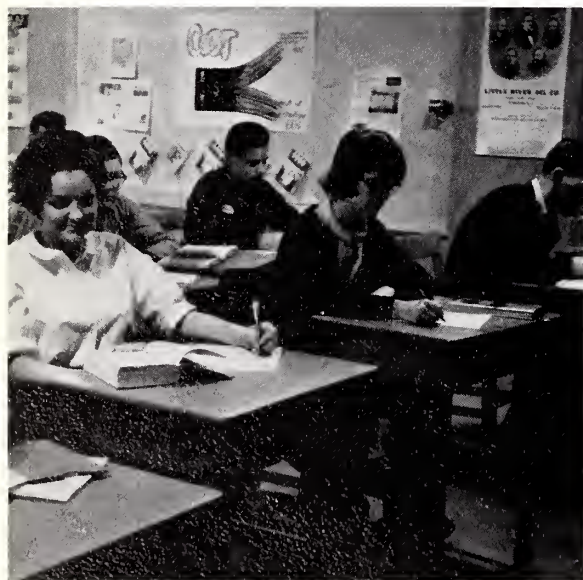

Perhaps Frankie Grant has the most interesting job, that of mortician's assistant.

Distributive Education

After attending classes from nine to one o'clock, these students work at various jobs in Goldsboro.

Goldsboro High School has produced many capable workers since the Distributive Education Club was formed in 1939. The organization is composed of members who desire to broaden their knowledge of the business world. D.E. students who work part-time gain the needed experience for full-time work in the future.

The A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir, a group of seventy musicians selected by audition from the entire student body, presents "Amahl and the Night Visitors," an opera by Gian Carlo Menotti, every Christmas. This tradition has been nourished for six consecutive years.

Mr. T., as we fondly call Mr. Trautwein, holds our attention at an informal rehearsal for "Amahl."

Steve Baddour, a junior, is our renowned accompanist. Steve has held this important position in the A Cappella Choir and the Mixed Chorus for three years.

The Mixed Chorus

Unlike the A Cappella, the Mixed Chorus is a scheduled class open to any student. At present, the one-hundred-eighty-member chorus is looking forward to a successful spring production, "Little Mary Sunshine."

The Mixed Chorus acts as a student body in itself. It elects officers each year. Officers for 1963-1964 are: Bythal Bostic, pres.; Gay Bland, vice pres.; Martha Hine, sec.; Roger Kilpatrick, treas.; Steve Baddour, acc.; Laura Roach, student dir.; Barbara Hill, Barbara Bennett, and Linda Mercer, pers. sec.; Carol Zealy, and Allison Jones, librarians.

Our Madrigal Group is a choir of distinguished musicians, selected from the Mixed Chorus.

"The Mikado" — Presented by the

"The Mikado," the third production of its kind at Goldsboro High School, opens revealing Pish-Tush (Buddy Lewis) and the men of the chorus explaining to the audience just who the Mikado is.

As the story goes, Nanki-Poo, son of the Mikado, has fled the court to escape marriage with the horrid Katisha. Assuming the disguise of a musician, he encounters a maid named Yum-Yum and immediately falls in love with her. . .

"Chop it off, chop it off!"

Bythal Bostic, a newcomer to the Mixed Chorus, did a superb acting job as Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner of Titipu. Nanki-Poo (Jarvis Bailey) is about to be beheaded here by Pooh-Bah (Gerald Littleton).

Yum-Yum, played by Linda Mercer, is the heroine of the musical comedy. Here she is accompanied by her two little friends, Peep-Bo (Pam Johnson), and Pitti-Sing (sung alternately by Mary Turner and Susan Self).

. . . Yum-Yum was to have been married to the aged Ko-Ko, but as luck has it, a letter from the Mikado ordering Ko-Ko to execute someone dissolves this plan of marriage to Yum-Yum.

Suddenly he hits upon an idea—that he should behead Nanki-Poo

Here, we find the three little maids and their attendants, merrily aggravating Pooh-Bah, the Lord High Everything Else.

Mixed Chorus

1963

. . . But all is found out in time, saving Nanki-Poo from decapitation, and thrusting Ko-Ko into a marriage with Katisha, the daughter-in-law elect, who settles for him, having been told that her beloved Nanki-Poo was dead . . .

Ko-Ko hastily consents to marriage with Katisha (Laura Roach).

Nanki-Poo and Yum-Yum plan their future.

. . . The Mikado comes to the rescue with his blessings and a flirtatious adventure with Pitti-Sing, so . . .

. . . Everyone lives happily ever after.
The End.

The Mikado (Harry Muir) graces everyone's marriage with his presence.

. . . Mr.
John
B.
Thompson

A very important part of our music department, the Goldsboro High School Band has been under the direction of Mr. John B. Thompson for nineteen years. The Marching Band upholds spirit in the school, and the Symphonic Band seems to channel that spirit into a cultural background for the entire student body.

Goldsboro Senior High School Symphonic Band

Our Symphonic Band presents concerts for the school and the community. It is a scheduled class, open to all high school students. This year has been a good example of the years past, with the Concert Band giving Christmas, Spring, and Graduation programs. A growing solution for those people interested in the band but unable to attend many concerts is the popular outdoor "Blanket" Concert.

CAPTAIN

Bill Stroud serves the band as Captain. Bill, a senior, plays the tenor saxophone and is a prominent member of a group of students and graduates called the "Spectaculars." The "Specs" act as a dance band.

Varsity Club Prayer

When the score stands against me and there seems little chance to win, when there is a whole half to play and I am hot and tired and sick at heart; then I pray, Divine Comrade, for strength to play the game. It is easy enough to play when I am winning, when I feel fresh and there are no odds against me; but when things are going wrong and I am tempted to cheat, to gamble, or to quit, then I need Thy help. I want to take life as a game and play it fair and hard. To do this, I need some strong leader, so I pray that Thou will always be with me.

When I am cowardly or tired or baffled, give the sense that Thou art by my side, telling me how to plan my way and giving me the courage to keep on. Be with me in the contests of today and all through life's courses. Amen.

REMINISCING

We have spent three good years at GHS
So now it's time to leave, we guess.

Our Sophomore picnic was a great success—
Many have said, "It was the best."

Junior-Senior, Rhapsody in Blue, was Thoroughly enjoyed by quite a few.

"Markets," our sophomore stunt, led the review;
Then there was "The King and Us," which was quite a preview.

Our senior stunt was surely the best,
But it does seem good to have a rest.

It's been twelve years since we first lit our candles of knowledge,
But now we're beginning to see the light to college.
So to all of our friends, we leave to you,
No stormy weather, just skies of blue.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

We will stand together,
Class of '64.
High School days can show us
What we have in store.
Success will surely come to us;
Each will do his share.
What we do and learn here
We'll carry everywhere.

Striving for perfection,
Proud of this our school;
Pledging hearts and hands,
This we make our rule.
God above will guide us
Now and evermore.
We will stand united,
Class of '64.

Class motto: To persevere and to surpass.

Class colors: Green and white

Class song:

March we forth toward the midst of life
With the banner of hope unfurled
That the light of the glorious words of truth
May shine throughout the world.
To persevere and to surpass—
Our motto and our guide . . .
For through the years we hope to shape
The futures of our lives.

With our colors green and white
We'll keep our morals high,
Striving to improve our class
We'll soon pass others by.
Nearer and nearer draws the time
When there'll be neither dread nor fear.
And then our hopes will come alive
For this class of '65.

Epilogue

Change has played a great part in our lives in 1963 and 1964. Perhaps the greatest change has been in our government: the United States has a new head of state. President Lyndon Baines Johnson could perhaps tell us that even the most carefully prepared plans are always subject to chance. Nevertheless, human nature has never been such that it could abandon itself to idle hope.

Therefore let us examine ourselves to determine the best way to build a bridge of understanding on which we may travel safely for the remainder of our lives . . .
